Dear Mrs. Everett,

To save you time and trouble, we are enclosing a copy of WHITEWASH. The price is $4.95 plus 10¢ postage.

We have had many letters from your area. The bookstores apparently do not know they can get WHITEWASH from their regular wholesalers, or from us.

Thank you also for the interesting thoughts you shared. Much of this will have to await the final answer of history, but perhaps we have gotten it started.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
